REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

There is a leak at the base on my faucet. The leak is slow but does come out when I leave the tap running. Also, I seem to have a separate leak the top of my garburator and was wondering how much it would cost to get fixed or if you would be able to replace the garburator with an equivalent model?

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

-The garburator was leaking from the mounting bracket. I removed the gasket, cleaned it, and reinstalled it. Tested by filling and draining the sink multiple times while running the garburator. -The kitchen faucet is leaking internally and I suggest replacing it over trying to source parts from American Standard for repair.
