REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:
 broken garboratur - "pretty sure the motors burned out. (husband) smashed a coffee mug and thought he got all the pieces. Turns out some of them went into the garburator and we couldn't see them all so kept running it and hearing the ceramic in there. I think I we got it all but don't know as it stopped working. There is food in there now. No smell or smoke from the engine or anything." I'm helping a friend, can get more info if you need it including a photo. Thanks, Lindsay

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:
 I was able to unjam the garburator by removing a small piece of porcelain. Tested by filling and draining the sink multiple times while running the garburator.
